temi

importanti :

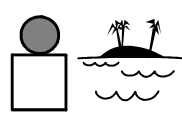

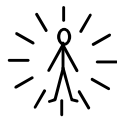

dal Libro I (1°) - Libro IV (4°)

i libri raccontano la vita sull'isola di Itaca senza Odisseo

(Ulisse per i romani) .

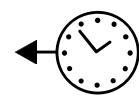

Si racconta del viaggio Telemaco, figlio di Odisseo .

Telemaco cerca il padre a Pilo , a Sparta

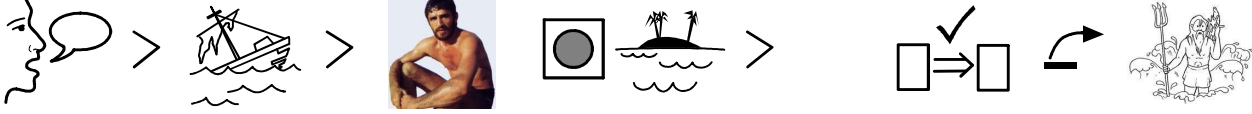

Poi va dal re Menelao e da Elena, che hanno fatto pace

• Libro V (5°) - Libro VII (7°)

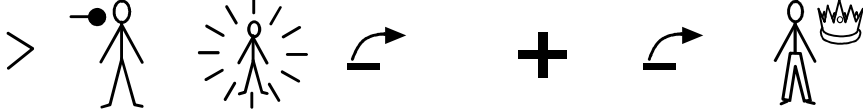

Si narra del naufragio di Odisseo nell'isola dei Feaci, causato da Poseidone, uno degli dei nemici di Odisseo, ed anche della sua vita dai Feaci e dal re, Alcino.

• Libro VIII (8°) - Libro XII (12°)

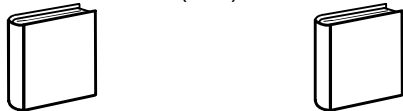

durante il viaggio per giungere all'amata patria Itaca

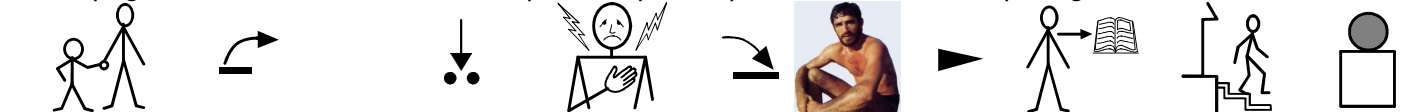

Questi racconti sono una "analessi": racconti del passato come vissuti adesso

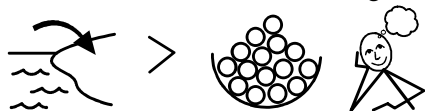

• Libro XIII (13°) - Libro XXIII (23°)

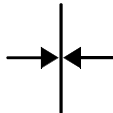

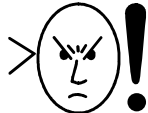

Accompagnato dai Feaci, che provano pietà per Odisseo, il protagonista sbarca sulla costa della tanto sognata Itaca.

Si narra dell'ira di Odisseo contro i proci ,

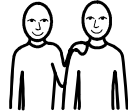

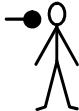

Odisseo fa pace con il figlio Telemaco nella tenda

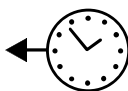

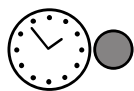

Telemaco

del suo amico Eumeo

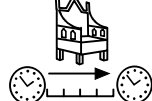

Dopo aver vinto la " prova dell'arco", Odisseo uccide i proci e

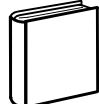

i servi nemici

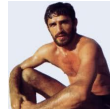

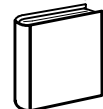

Poi torna a regnare Itaca con la amata moglie Penelope.

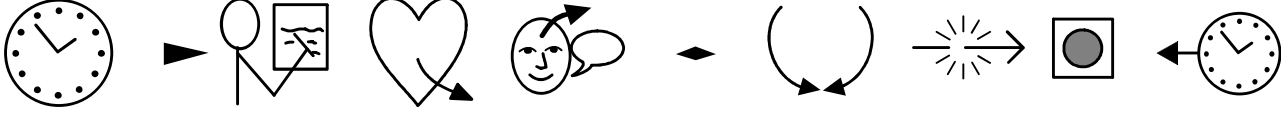

Libro XXIV (24°)

Ultimo libro, è un riassunto della storia di Odisseo

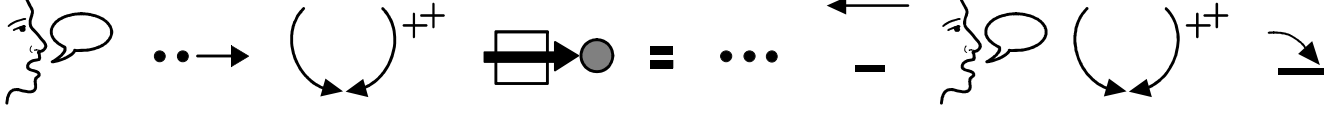

Quando l'autore vuole spiegare un fatto avvenuto in passato .

interrompe la narrazione del presente e di ritorna nel passato.

Narra così avvenimenti passati come se stesse narrando fatti al presente.

Nell' Odissea , quando Odisseo narra le sue avventure al re Alcino
